

AHPCC CONFERENCE 2023
THE HAYES CONFERENCE CENTRE, SWANWICK
MONDAY 15TH MAY – WEDNESDAY 17TH MAY
COMMUNICATING SPIRITUAL CARE: EXPLORATION, EXPRESSION AND DELIVERY

CONTENT OUTLINE PROGRAMME

Please note later registration time of 3.00pm

DAY 1 – MONDAY 15TH MAY

- AFTERNOON Arrival and registration at Lakeside Reception at 3.00pm
- SESSION 1: Keith Morrison – “Setting the Scene”
- SESSION 2: Kei Okada – Awakening the Chaplains Creativity in End-of-Life Consciousness & Communication
- EVENING Conference Dinner

DAY 2 – TUESDAY 16TH MAY

- MORNING “Stillpoint” - Rosie Deedes
- SNAPSHOT 1: Steve Radley – Soulful Vision
- SESSION 3: Interactive Presentations – Part 1
Group A: Kathryn Lord – OutoftheBox - Creating Space for Exploration and Expression
Group B: Ewan Kelly – Reflective Soulwork: promoting meaningful and meaning-filled spiritual care practice
- SESSION 4: Workshops
1. Steve Radley – When Words are not Enough. Using mindful photography and images as tools for ministry within palliative care
2. Kei Okada – Awakening Your Creativity in End-of-Life Consciousness & Communication
3. Shared Resources workshop
4. Funeral Resources workshop
- AFTERNOON Optional informal contemplative photography nature walk with Steve Radley
- SESSION 5: Interactive Presentations – Part 2
Group A: Ewan Kelly – Reflective Soulwork: promoting meaningful and meaning-filled spiritual care practice
Group B: Kathryn Lord – OutoftheBox - Creating Space for Exploration and Expression
- AGM
- EVENING
- SESSION 6: Regional Groups
New Chaplains Meeting (informal in Main Building)
Optional viewing of film of play “Cicely and David” by David Clark

DAY 3 – WEDNESDAY 17TH MAY

MORNING

“Stillpoint” - Rosie Deedes

SNAPSHOT 2:

Julian Raffay – Postgrad Cert. in Chaplaincy Studies with UKBHC Registration

SNAPSHOT 3:

Lucyann Ashdown – MA in chaplaincy studies, dissertation research.

SESSION 7:

Jill Thornton – ‘Lessons from the Pandemic: a contribution towards an emerging model of Healthcare Chaplaincy at the End of Life’.

Refreshments and Bookstall

SESSION 8:

Workshops

1. Kei Okada – Awakening Your Creativity in End-of-Life Consciousness & Communication
2. Steve Radley – When Words are not Enough. Using mindful photography and images as tools for ministry within palliative care
3. Shared Resources workshop
4. Funeral Resources workshop

Plenary Session

AFTERNOON

Lunch and depart around 1.00pm