

Mark Burleigh

Revd Mark Burleigh was ordained as a Baptist Minister in 1986 following training at Spurgeon's College in London.

Mark has worked as an NHS chaplain in Leicester's hospitals since 1994 and has led the multi-faith team of chaplains since 2000. He also appointed the first non-religious chaplaincy staff member in the NHS.

Mark is currently the President of the College of Health Care Chaplains (CHCC), a director of the UK Board for Healthcare Chaplaincy Ltd (UKBHC), a member of the Committee of the European Network of Health Care Chaplaincy and serves on the Baptist Union interfaith working group. He is also an Honorary Visiting Chaplaincy Fellow at the Markfield Institute of Higher Education.

His hobbies include music and cycling.
